Anthony Truino Tony is the Chief Executive Officer who is at the forefront of the vision permeating Twenty Four Wealth. Growing & protecting wealth has been his life's work, pouring in uncountable hours honing all aspects of the business. This led him to the realization that it shouldn't have to be the same for his clients. The sacrifice of his own free time became the "eureka moment" for the type of business he would lead: a wealth management company that puts free time back in the equation of what matters most to people.

This combination of world-class wealth management services & acknowledging the human element of the importance of free time has become the bedrock of our business.

Tony is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, Retirement Income Certified Professional® and Certified Private Wealth Advisor.®
